To All it May Concern:

I strongly support the need for this review and respectfully request that you inspect, in particular, those options addressing the vulnerability of our First Nation's People, as a high priority.

Please also include and consider all others, ultimately as important and necessary for their survival.

The continued direction of many global governments that seek profits over the well-being of it's citizens must change.

This includes Australia.

Very sincerely,
Mary J Pigram
