Q.2 Do you have any comments you wish to add?

A. To whom it may concern,
The management and protection of cultural heritage has to be in the hands of those involved and their communities, definitely not in the hands of the State or developers
I am therefore calling for the following reforms to the CHMP, that are needed at a minimum to improve the protection of cultural heritage in Queensland:

- Amend the definition of 'Aboriginal party' so that traditional owners with cultural connection to Country can be involved in consultation and negotiation processes, regardless of their status as a native title party.
- Create greater enforcement powers for First Nations, so that we aren't reliant on the State to protect our cultural heritage if it is in imminent danger of harm or destruction.
- Establish an independent First Nations-led decision-making body that is responsible for dispute resolution and mediation, and for assessing who the right people to speak for Country are.

Sincerely,
Paul
